

Job vacancies, three-month average ending in April 2013

Released at 8:30 a.m. Eastern time in The Daily, Tuesday, July 16, 2013

In April, there were 234,000 job vacancies among Canadian businesses, down 20,000 from April 2012. There were 6.1 unemployed people for every job vacancy, up from 5.6 one year earlier.

The national job vacancy rate was 1.6% in April, down from 1.8% 12 months earlier.

Note to readers

Monthly data are based on three-month moving averages. For example, data for the current month are based on an average of the data from the current month and the previous two months.

Data on job vacancies are not seasonally adjusted and should only be compared on a year-over-year basis. Given this is a new data series, trends are not yet available; therefore, data should be interpreted with caution.

With each release, data for the current reference month are subject to revision. Data have been revised for the previous month. Users are encouraged to request and use the most up-to-date data for each month.

Available in CANSIM: tables 284-0001 to 284-0004.

Definitions, data sources and methods: survey number 5202.

The next job vacancies release, for May, will be on August 20.
