Did you know? In 2018, the average net worth of the highest income earners was $1.8 million, nine times that of the lowest income earners ($200,000).

By responsibly using new data sources, we provide Canadians with greater insights.

Note to readers

To find out more about household debt in Canada, consult the March 27 Daily article "Distributions of household economic accounts for income, consumption, saving and wealth of Canadian households, 2018," which uses administrative data to provide detailed information on the financial vulnerabilities of specific groups and the resulting implications for economic wellbeing and financial stability.
