

Study: Fallout from the COVID-19 pandemic: A look back at selected industries in the service sector in 2020

Released at 8:30 a.m. Eastern time in The Daily, Friday, May 21, 2021

The article "Fallout from the COVID-19 pandemic: A look back at selected industries in the service sector in 2020" was published today.

According to this study, the COVID-19 pandemic most affected economic activity in the accommodation services, food services, travel-related and cultural industries. The pandemic-induced downturn also disrupted business activity in the other service industries overall; the resulting financial losses are significant.
