

Persistence and graduation indicators of postsecondary students by parental income, 2012/2013 entry cohort

Released at 8:30 a.m. Eastern time in The Daily, Tuesday, July 19, 2022

Today, Statistics Canada is releasing a fact sheet entitled "Persistence and graduation indicators of postsecondary students by parental income, 2012/2013 entry cohort." This fact sheet explores the association between parental income and the pathways of young adults in postsecondary education for students who began their studies in the 2012/2013 academic year.

The longitudinal data used in this release are derived from a dataset that integrates data from the Postsecondary Student Information System with tax data from the T1 Family File.

Definitions, data sources and methods: survey numbers 4105 and 5017.

The fact sheet, "Persistence and graduation indicators of postsecondary students by parental income, 2012/2013 entry cohort," part of the Education, learning and training: Research paper series (81-595-M), is now available.
