

Study: Early career quality of employment of Indigenous graduates with a bachelor's degree, 2010 to 2018 cohorts

Released at 8:30 a.m. Eastern time in The Daily, Wednesday, February 21, 2024

Today, Statistics Canada is releasing a research paper titled "Early career quality of employment of Indigenous graduates with a bachelor's degree, 2010 to 2018 cohorts." This study provides a profile of First Nations, Métis and Inuit graduates and compares the employment income, unionization rates, and employer pension plan coverage rate of First Nations and Métis graduates with a bachelor's degree to non-Indigenous, non-racialized and Canadian-born graduates, two years after graduation.

The data used in this release are derived from the Postsecondary Student Information System integrated with the 2016 Census, the 2021 Census and the T1 Family File.
