Note to readers

The General Social Survey – Canadians' Safety (Victimization) provides statistical data to better understand how Canadians perceive crime and the justice system and to capture information on their experiences of victimization.

This survey is a national survey of self-reported victimization and is collected in all provinces and territories. The survey allows for estimates of the numbers and characteristics of victims and criminal incidents.

For more information about this survey (questionnaires, definitions, data sources and methods used), see the General Social Survey — Canadians' Safety survey page.

Available tables: table 35-10-0164-01.

Definitions, data sources and methods: survey number 4504.
